

THE LITTLE BLACK
RECIPE BOOK

KILLYBEGS AND TYRONE

GOOD FOOD INITIATIVE

Introduction

Killybegs Tourism is delighted to be involved with the Flavour of Tyrone in compiling the little black recipe book. For us in Killybegs it is yet another step in forming a Good Food Circle in Donegal South West.

We restaurateurs are only too aware of the need to source good food locally and for menus to reflect local produce. In Donegal South West we are blessed with an abundance of fresh seafood, a fact that will not go amiss in reading this little black book.

We have commenced a dialogue with local organic producers with a view to including their produce on our menus. It is our hope that within a short period of time Killybegs will be renowned as having the best seafood in the country and will be at the cutting edge of innovative cuisine.

Killybegs lies 18 miles west of Donegal Town (20 minutes drive) and is the gateway to Sliabh Liag, Europe's highest sea cliffs. It is a picturesque fishing port; Ireland's largest and liveliest, which boasts live music 7 nights a week all year round. Driving west from Killybegs to Glencolmille takes in the world's most beautiful coastal drive. The area has modern hotels, a motor van stop over, approved B&Bs, access to three golf courses, holiday homes, an indoor equestrian centre, a blue flag beach, several sea angling boats and a fun Donegal Bay Safari for all the family.

Looking forward to your visit,

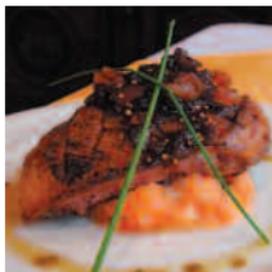

Hugh O'Donnell,

Chairman, Killybegs Tourism.

Introduction

As part of the Flavour of Tyrone initiative the first Good Food Circle was set up in Northern Ireland and consists of sixteen highly rated establishments, all of whom have been independently assessed.

We, the restaurateurs, are constantly striving to maintain and improve our reputation for good honest food produced from only fresh quality local produce. In this recipe book, we have put an emphasis on classic but simple to prepare recipes using the quality assured beef, lamb, pork and chicken that we are renowned for, as well as the vegetables that are grown in our fields. Along with our partners from Killybegs, we invite you to pamper your palate and try out the recipes, tried and tested by our skilled and imaginative chefs and to appreciate the work of the growers, suppliers and producers. We hope that not only will you enjoy the culinary delights in the booklet, but that you will visit us in our restaurants both in Tyrone and Killybegs.

This recipe booklet has been produced and distributed in conjunction with South Tyrone Exploring Diversity Initiative and is supported by funding from Special EU Programmes Body under measure 5.2 promoting Peace and Reconciliation. The program continues to manage and facilitate planned cooperation through developing a series of networks between Dungannon and South Tyrone Borough and Donegal in areas of mutual interest.

Char grilled chicken fillet with crispy Cookstown bacon, melted Fivemiletown cheese, ratatouille chutney and fresh basil pesto.

Serves 2

2x 225g/ 8 oz chicken fillets skin removed

2 rashers Cookstown smoked back bacon

75g/3 oz grated
Fivemiletown cheddar

Olive oil for brushing
En place ratatouille chutney
En place basil pesto
Flat leaf parsley to garnish

Trim the chicken fillets removing any sinew.
Gently open the fillets out with a sharp knife to butterfly.
Brush the fillets with olive oil and place on a heated char grill or a hot ribbed skillet.

Cook for approximately 15/20 minutes turning regularly.
Cook bacon rashers on skillet or grill for 2 minutes each side to slightly browned and crispy.

Keep the bacon warm until chicken is cooked through.
Heat the grill and place the cooked chicken with bacon on top adding a generous helping of grated cheese.
Melt the cheese until golden and bubbly.

To serve use a large plate with 3 dollops of en place ratatouille chutney, drizzle some fresh basil pesto around the edge of the plate, place the chicken and bacon in the centre of the plate, garnish with flat leaf parsley and serve at once with a helping of hot steaming champ and seasonal vegetables. Enjoy!

Char-grilled Tyrone Black Angus Beef with Ceps, Spinach Crust and Celeriac Rosti

175g/6 oz Steak or Tyrone Black Angus beef fillet
25g/1 oz smoked rindless Cookstown streaky bacon
50g/2 oz brown cep mushrooms sliced
8 leaves of baby spinach
12½g/½ oz melted butter

25g/1 oz white breadcrumbs
25g/1 oz celeriac peeled & grated (available in local supermarkets)
25g/1 oz white potatoes grated
75ml/3 fl. oz brown stock
1 glass red wine

Prepare rosti by mixing potato and celeriac together with a little melted butter, black pepper and salt. Mould into a flat circle shape and fry on a hot pan until coloured on both sides and cooked through.

Brush fillet with a little oil and season on both sides with black pepper. Place on a hot char-grill pan and bar mark criss-cross on both sides quickly. Meanwhile sauté all the mushrooms in butter quickly and remove from pan. Put aside half of the mushrooms and keep warm.

Prepare a spinach crust by blending baby spinach and breadcrumbs together with a little seasoning until it resembles a soft moist mixture. Put aside.

Place half of mushrooms on three rashers of smoked bacon. Rest beef on top and wrap bacon around fillet. Place fillet of beef in oven @ 180°C for 10-15 minutes.

Add wine to a hot saucepan and then the stock. Simmer and add a little butter until it reaches a syrupy consistency. Place spinach crust on top of the beef for the last 5 minutes towards the end of cooking time. Allow to brown. Also place rosti in oven for 5 minutes and allow to brown.

Place celeriac rosti in the centre of a large round plate. Rest the wrapped beef on top and gently ladle the reduced jus around the fillet. Place leftover mushrooms alternatively around the plate and garnish with fresh thyme.

Stangmore Country House

Roasted Rack of Cloughbane Farm Lamb with Sweet & Sour Aubergines & Herbed New Potatoes

Serves 2

1 rack of fresh trimmed lamb with six cutlets (about 500g/1 lb.), cut in two
2 tbsp. pine nuts, toasted
1 small aubergine cut into strips
1 small red pepper cut into strips
1 onion, peeled & chopped

1 tbsp. golden caster sugar
1 clove garlic, peeled & crushed
2 tbsp. red wine vinegar
1 tbsp. capers (rinsed)
6 black olives, thickly sliced new potatoes - enough for two
A generous tbsp. of freshly chopped herbs - mint, parsley, thyme etc

Oven temp. 220°C / gas mark 7

Score the fat which covers the main part of the lamb in a criss cross pattern. Heat an ovenproof pan & brush the lamb lightly with olive oil. Transfer the meat to the pan and seal on all sides then transfer to the oven. Cook 20 minutes for pink or 30 minutes for medium to well done. Boil or steam the new potatoes until tender.

Fry the aubergine in hot olive oil for about 5 mins. until soft & lightly golden, remove from the pan. Re-heat the pan & fry the onion, pepper & sugar for about 3 mins.

Add the garlic, fry for about 30 seconds & add the vinegar, capers & olives. Add the aubergines, mix together & season.

When the lamb is ready, remove from the oven and leave it to rest for about 5 minutes.

To serve - stir the pine nuts & three-quarters of the herbs into the aubergine mixture. Spoon this mixture onto a warm plate and arrange the lamb on top. Toss the new potatoes in the remaining herbs & serve on the side.

The Cope House

Chicken, Prawn & Monk Roulade

4 servings

4x8oz chicken fillets

4oz monkfish

4oz shelled prawn (fresh or defrosted)

4oz shredded cheddar

1-pint chicken stock

1 clove of garlic

¼ pint double cream

20g butter

Suppliers: Chicken supplied by Dave Ainsworth Butcher, Killybegs.

Baby potato & mixed greens supplied by John McIntyre, organic farmer, Ballyshannon.

Prawns and Monkfish supplied by Albert Kyles, Fishmonger at the pier, Killybegs.

Lightly batten out fillets, between cling film.

Season fillets with salt & pepper. Place ½ prawns, monkfish & cheese in chicken. Place chicken fillets on cling film and roll in sausage shape, twisting both ends. Place in fridge for 20 minutes to firm up.

Bring chicken stock to boil. Place fillets (still in cling film) in stock & poach for 20 minutes.

Make sauce by putting ¼ pint of stock in saucepan and reduce by ½. Add the cream and reduce by ½ again.

Chop up remaining prawn and add to sauce with the chopped garlic. Add butter to reduced sauce and whisk.

Remove chicken roulades from cling film and let rest for 2 minutes.

Slice & fan chicken on a warm plate & pour sauce over. Serve with baby potato and mixed greens.

Aubergine Slices with prawns and Cheese sauce

Serves 4

1 aubergine	1 cup of white wine
1 cup of household flour	¼ litre double cream
500g shelled or defrosted prawns	1 egg yolk
1 small onion	100g butter
	25g grated parmesan cheese.

Suppliers: Aubergine supplied by Mickey Kerrigan, Mountcharles and prawns supplied by Cathal Mc Gowan, Killybegs.

Slice the aubergine into thin rounds, spread the slices on a large tray and sprinkle with salt. Leave for 20 minutes to remove excess moisture. Pat dry with a paper towel and pass through the flour, shaking off any excess.

In a large frying pan, pour enough olive oil to cover the base and heat. Place the floured aubergine rounds into the oil and fry on each side until golden. Remove and drain on paper towel. Arrange carefully and keep to one side.

THE SAUCE

Finely dice onion and place on hot pan with olive oil. Sauté off and add wine, allow to reduce, add cream and allow to reduce further. Whisk in the butter and remove from heat and whisk in egg yolk. Add in prawns and finally the parmesan cheese. Spoon the sauce over the aubergine rounds. Place under the grill until golden brown and serve immediately.

Trimmed rack of Tyrone lamb served on a bed of Askins champ with a redcurrant reduction, garnished with crispy shoestring onions

1 rack of Tyrone Lamb	1 red pepper	Butter
Redcurrant Jelly	2 slices smoked	1 Spanish onion peeled
4 medium size peeled potatoes	Cookstown bacon	25g/1 oz plain flour
1 green pepper	4 tablespoons fresh cream	Pepper
		Salt

Ask your local butcher to trim the rack of lamb and cut into cutlets with two bones per cutlet. Heat an oven proof frying pan or grill pan for a few minutes, lightly brush the cutlets with some olive oil and season the lamb with a little cracked black pepper then seal the lamb on all sides, when the lamb is sealed place the pan with the lamb in a pre heated oven 230°C/gas mark 8 for at least twenty minutes or a little longer if you would like the lamb better cooked.

ASKINS CHAMP - Dice the peppers and bacon and sauté in a little oil, then boil the potatoes, when cooked drain the potatoes, add the cream and butter with a little salt to season, mash the potatoes and beat in peppers and bacon.

REDCURRANT REDUCTION - When the lamb is cooked to your liking remove from the oven and let it rest. Transfer the juices from the pan to a small saucepan and add two tablespoons of redcurrant jelly gently whisk until reduced.

SHOESTRING ONIONS - Finely slice the onion, then toss in plain flour and place a small quantity in some hot oil until golden brown and then drain on kitchen paper

TO SERVE - Spoon the champ onto a plate, place the lamb on top and drizzle with the redcurrant reduction then garnish with the shoestring onions. ENJOY

Clogher Valley Cheesy Chicken

Serves 4

4x 175g/6 oz Tyrone Free Range chicken supremes
Fivemiletown Brie cheese (1 wedge)
Breadcrumbs (half a loaf)
1 lemon
1 small bag of basil and 1 small bag of chives

2 eggs
150ml/¼ pint of milk
Flour for coating
Baby potatoes
2 bags of spinach
Salt and Pepper
Butter and oil for frying

Firstly, lay your chicken fillets skin side down and make a small pocket in the fillet. Cut the Fivemiletown Brie into 4 equal portions, and place one portion into each fillet. Put basil, chives, lemon zest and breadcrumbs into a food processor for 2 minutes then place on a tray. Mix eggs and milk together in a bowl, and dust your chicken fillets with flour, then into the egg and milk mixture and finally into the breadcrumbs until there is a nice coat of crumbs on the fillet. Deep fry for 2 minutes and then place in oven at moderate heat for 35-45 minutes. While the chicken is cooking, part boil the baby potatoes, then strain and slice into a pan with butter and a small amount of oil, season well and fry until crispy and golden brown. With a pot of boiling water, well seasoned, set the spinach in for 1 minute, then drain.

TO SERVE

Set the spinach in the centre of the plate, then place your sauté potatoes on top, and take your chicken from the oven, cut at an angle in half, to let the cheese ooze out and set on top of the potatoes and spinach.

TO GARNISH

Just a nice basil leaf on top.
