

The Secret Glens

A wonderful guided bus tour through the hidden glens and landscapes of the Sperrins.

On meeting your guide in Maghera, your group will take a leisurely bus tour to discover the magnificent landscape of the Sperrins, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). Stretching from Lough Neagh to Omagh, the spectacular Sperrins have largely been sculpted by the vast ice sheets of the last Ice Age. The Sperrins also encompass many scenic and little known landscapes 'the secret glens'. As well as taking you on a magical journey of discovery through these lesser-known beauty spots, the tour will uncover the enthralling history, heritage and folklore of the region. A lunch stop will be made at the Alley Arts Centre 1 in Strabane.
